VISION

It is the vision of Madison's Any Given Child Community Arts Team that all students have access to a comprehensive arts education with inclusive, diverse, and integrated learning in all art forms every year.

GOALS FOR ARTS EDUCATION

The Any Given Child Madison Community Arts Team set the following long-term goals to advocate for and bring access, balance, and equity to each child's Arts Education:

- Facilitate and foster connections between MMSD, local arts organizations, and teaching artists.
- Intentionally cultivate diverse teaching artist talent in support of standards-based arts experiences for students and educators.
- Develop and sustain systems for an arts-rich education focused on access and equity.
- Track, assess, and report Any Given Child Madison progress towards mission, vision and goals

OUTCOMES

- Annual arts integration professional development workshops and demonstration teaching sessions led by national and local teaching artists for 100+ educators and artists annually
- Arts integration identified as a supported instructional strategy at the District.
- Equitable arts access funding supports arts education residencies at every elementary and middle school Districtwide each year

Ensuring the Arts for ANY GIVEN CHILD

- Madison Arts Commission grant aligned to support Any Given Child Madison
- Arts Liaison identified and offered quarterly data collection and pd at each MMSD school
- Dozens of trained teaching artists, both independent and part of arts organizations offering residencies
- Development and school board approval of the MMSD Arts Rich Blueprint – incorporation into school improvement plans
- Arts Education Roundtable Madison established to host community artists and arts education administrators
